

Merchants and Farmers Bank eStatement User Agreement and Disclosure

This Merchants and Farmers Bank User Agreement and Disclosure provides consent to receive bank statements, notices and disclosures for your selected bank account(s) by electronic delivery, called eStatements via the banks' Online Banking service. Disclosure information may be submitted via your email account. The terms of this Agreement are in addition to those that apply to an account or service you have with us. Within this Agreement, the terms "you", "your", and "customer", refer to each depositor on an account who has elected to receive an electronic statement, the term "account" or "accounts" means your account at Merchants and Farmers Bank.

- General By accepting this Agreement, you have elected to receive your periodic account statements designated above and any required account disclosures in electronic format. Our goal is to provide paperless statements, which are a great way to make your life easier, in addition to help saving our environment. No more waiting for your account information to arrive by US Postal service, we'll simply add your statement to your Internet Banking account. Reconcile your accounts more quickly and reduce the risk of identity theft. Plus, it's a free service. You can view and print your documents (statements, images and disclosures) when it's convenient to you.
- Equipment / Access Requirements
 - *Valid, active email address
 - *Personal computer or Mac with printer capability
 - *MS Internet Explorer 6.0 or higher
 - *Authorized Merchants and Farmers Bank Online Banking Access (www.mfbanknet.com)
 - *Adobe Acrobat 6.0 or higher, (download free from www.adobe.com)
- Eligible Accounts Checking and / or Savings eStatements will be available at the same frequency (cycle) as your statement(s) were previously mailed. Generally, checking statements are delivered monthly, while savings statements are delivered quarterly, unless combined on your monthly checking account statement. Dormant account cycles may differ.
- Accessing eStatements Merchants and Farmers Bank will make your eStatement available per your cycle date. You may then logon to your Online Banking account. Click on your account number and then the "Documents" tab, select DDA Statements for statements only or select Checking Account Statements for statement and images. There will be 24 months of statement history. eStatements will be viewable electronically in PDF-Portable Document Format which can be viewed online and printed at your convenience. It is your responsibility to view your account statement and disclosures through Merchants and Farmers Bank's Online banking program. You will no longer receive a paper statement by mail after enrolling for this service. If you wish to have a paper copy of a statement or check mailed to you, normal research fees will apply. You understand that you have a duty to exercise reasonable promptness in examining the eStatement which includes your electronic debits and cancelled checks for unauthorized signatures, alterations, forgery, posting errors, etc... The statute of limitations governing these responsibilities will commence at the time your eStatement is available regardless of when you access the eStatement with the bank's Online Banking service. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after your FIRST statement is available to you on which the error or problem appeared. You agree Merchants and Farmers Bank's security procedures are commercially reasonable.

- Security/Customer Responsibilities You are responsible for accessing and viewing your documents at your earliest convenience. These contain important and legally binding information and disclosures. You are responsible for promptly notifying Merchants and Farmers Bank if any documents you receive are incomplete, unreadable or inaccessible. You must have a valid email address. You agree to immediately notify Merchants and Farmers Bank in writing of any changes to your email address. We will not accept any change of email address via e-mail for your security protection. Failure to update and/or correct your email address may result in Merchants and Farmers Bank reinstating the delivery of your paper statement. Email will sometimes get accidentally collected in a junk/spam mail folder by your email/internet service provider. Simply uncheck the email folder containing Merchants and Farmers Bank and unmark it, this will usually let your email be received to your "Inbox". You chose a personal Access ID and Password as a Merchants and Farmers Bank Online Banking customer, which allows you access to our service. You are responsible for keeping your Access ID and Password confidential and for ensuring that you have logged out when your session is complete to prevent unauthorized access. Access ID and Password is confidential information that should be known only by you. It is your responsibility to contact us if you know or suspect unauthorized use of your Access ID and Password. Merchants and Farmers Bank will not, for any reason, ask for your logon access and/or password. You agree to provide true, accurate, current and complete information about yourselves as requested, and not misrepresent your identity.
- Termination or Equipment Failure In the event of equipment failure or email delivery error, you may request a paper copy of your statement at no charge, simply contact our Bookkeeping Department at 870-382-6071. If an email is returned undeliverable for any reason, Merchants and Farmers Bank will attempt to contact you via phone, if no attempt can be made, we will resume the paper delivery of your statement via U.S. Postal Service immediately. If you wish to discontinue this service, you may send your request in writing to Merchants and Farmers Bank, Attn: Bookkeeping Department, P. O. Box 187, Dumas, AR. 71639-0187 or by visiting our main office at 500 Hwy 65 S Dumas AR 71639. Please allow us 30 calendar days from the date of delivery to implement your request. There are no fees associated with revoking this agreement. Termination of this agreement will result in paper account statements and disclosures being mailed to the address we have on file for you.

Merchants and Farmers Bank has the right to rescind this agreement at any time and for any reason without advanced notice.

- Disclosures Federal law requires that we obtain your consent before providing required account disclosures electronically. Therefore, your acceptance of this Agreement, provides consent to us to deliver your required disclosures electronically. A copy of our disclosures may be viewed by accessing Merchants and Farmers website, www.mfbanknet.com. These include but are not limited to: Electronic Funds Transfer Act Disclosure and Agreement, Regulation E, Regulation C and Privacy Notice Disclosure.
